
The most sharp clean corruption prevails in the army. Officers often give the men and their unlimited leave of absence and pocket their pay. On this account, when an emergency arises and the ranks have to be filled up, men are laid hold of wherever they can be caught, arms are put into their hands, and

The Republicans of the Eleventh Kentucky Congressional district nominated Wallace W. Jones.

The New York Tribune is said to be killing Blaine's chances among the working-men of New York.

Two hundred political speeches a night are being made in Maine, and things are described as red hot there.

The Republicans of Indiana appreciate the situation and are working like beavers in all parts of the State.

The Democratic majority in Arkansas is now claimed to be $50,000 a gain of 13,000 since the last election.

The Republicans give up Virginia and concede nine out of ten of the Congressional districts to the Democrats.

A son of the late Senator Garrett Davis has been appointed to a position in the Treasury Department at Washington.

JUDG BOWEN, of the Superior Court, will probably be a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals to succeed Judge Hines.

REV. LORICK PIERCE, Senior Bishop of the Southern Methodist Church of Georgia, died at Sparta, in that State, on the 3rd instant.

The news has been sent out by the Democratic committee at Columbus that the Republicans are colonizing negroes both in that State and Indiana.

At the recent election in Arkansas nearly one-half the negroes in the State voted the Democratic ticket. The amount repudiating $10,000,000 worth of railroad and levee bonds was carried.

The Prohibition party in Kansas have had a split and in consequence have two State tickets in the field. The seceders would not pledge themselves to support St. John.

ROSCOE CONKLING is credited with saying: "If Cleveland was a good enough man for Blaine's friends to make Governor of New York, perhaps he is a good man to make President."

It is said the Democrats of Ohio are now thoroughly united. The Pendleton, Hoadly and Thurman factions are all working in accord, and the party is better organized than in any previous campaign.

PHOTOGRAPHS of James G. Blaine's $100,000 palace in Washington city have been numerous distributed throughout Maine and other New England States. The object is to show how thrifty members of Congress can make money rapidly and build for themselves palatial mansions.

Blaine and the Irish.

Editor World: Your unsatisfactory answer in yesterday's World to the inquiry, "What has Mr. Blaine ever done for the Irish race?" prompts me to take up my pen to reply to the "conundrum." Let me say that Mr. Blaine has literally done nothing for the Irish in America. I have been a Republican up to the day of his nomination for the Presidency, which was to my mind the greatest insult ever offered the Irish. It was James G. Blaine who was instrumental in securing the arch enemy of the Irish, John Russell Lowell, as Minister to England. When the Irish in America were unanimous in rebuking him for his inanity and potent sympathy with England, Irish-Americans were being thrust into prison, James G. Blaine was Secretary of State. Did he evince his love for the Irish when asked to instruct Mr. Lowell as to certain measures? No! He laughed at us in our helplessness and referred to us as agitators and Communists.

Again, when Mr. Blaine was editor of the Kennebec (Me) Journal, he was a violent and offensive Know-Nothing (a hater of Europeans and Catholics in particular). Here is an extract from an editorial that every Irishman should commit to memory and repeat when Irish sup is dished out:

"We need stringent laws to regulate the Irish immigration from Europe." "And yet, with these facts plain as the nose of an elephant, he still said that our European immigration is nothing but a benefit to us. We hope, and we sincerely believe, the day is not far distant that this whole subject will be impartially reviewed by the law-making power, and then the just and honorable pride of being an American citizen will suffer no blush from having our paternal rights bestowed in full equality upon those who are not of our household."

James G. Blaine, the European's (?) friend, wrote the above. Those that were unfit at the time to breathe this free air are now cajoled and flattered.

James G. Blaine was the famous Madigan circular, calling upon Democratic Protestants to knife him because he was a Catholic Irishman.

James G. Blaine was offered a commission as Lieutenant-Colonel in the Seventh Maine Volunteers in 1862 and refused it because the Colonel was an Irishman.

What has James G. Blaine ever done for the Irish race?

SHE TEMPTED HIM.

Robbins' Story of His Elopement with Miss Fraser.

GALVESTON, Tex., Sept. 5.—This morning L. Robbins, alias J. Black, alias L. Williams, the gay lothario, was to have been tried for kidnaping Hattie Fraser, but as the main witness for the State, William Fraser, had left with his wayward daughter for their Canadian home, the complaint was dismissed. Robbins is, however, in jail on the charge of seduction, having thus far been unable to give bond for his appearance before the next term of the Criminal Court. Robbins is very much excited, and his sudden check to his gay career. To-day he made the following statement of the affair to your correspondent, which shows up some inner workings of the matter. Robbins states that he is a little over thirty-seven years old, and resided in London, Ont., where he had a wife and four children, but his married life has always been a quiet and happy one, and on his wife's account more than his own he deeply regrets the foolish act he has committed. He claims that he was not wholly to blame in the affair, and that few men could have resisted the temptation which assailed him, and which he at last reluctantly yielded to. For over four months back the girl Hattie had been pestering him to take her away from home, and he steadily refused to do so, and would not have done, had he not been to a certain extent forced into it. About the 14th ultimo he received a letter from the girl, which he was in his possession, but will not give it up for publication, telling him that she was determined to leave home and be in company with her. When she had obtained a three days' leave of absence from home on the pretense of visiting relatives, and that she would be on his train on the following Saturday. She went on in a most exaggerated description to protect her love for him, and wound up by saying that nothing he could say or do could change her intention, and that her mind was made up if he did not come with her to commit suicide. If the girl feared that she would carry out her intentions of self-destruction, and in the hopes of being able to dissuade her, he agreed to meet her. When they met he endeavored to reason with her, but she would listen to nothing, and said she wanted to have her fun out. Thinking he might be able to get her home at the end of her three days' leave he decided to humor her, but only to his disappointment and sorrow, as at the end of that time she was more than ever decided against going back home. In this position, unable to bring her back to her parents and unwilling to abandon her, he very foolishly allowed the time to slip by and events to shape themselves without any further attempts on his part, but he did realize the enormity of his offense until, behind the iron bars of his cell he was left a prey to his reflections, the bitterness of which may be better imagined than described. He has heretofore been a quiet, unassuming, and when out of this scrape he will profit by the severe lesson he has been taught, and go back to his wife and children by far a sadder and wiser man.

TURNED UP AGAIN.

Merry Merriman, the Avenger, Trying to Escape His Wife.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 5.—A. N. Merriman has grown tired of his wife who he married in sporting houses in London, Colorado, two years ago, and is trying to desert in this city. She claims to have been a true wife. On a return from a visit to Eastern relatives, last night, Mr. Merriman tried to gain admittance to the St. Clair Hotel, where her husband is stopping. He had left orders not to admit him, but she claimed that a rumormongering, however, that the patrol wagon was sent for, and she then consented to leave in a hack. Merriman is a notorious character, who, in his partnership with John Fleming of Detroit, kept a stock-elevating concern in the Times building. He has some time since. They sent several advertisements throughout the country promising to make for investors with their fifty cents on the dollar. It is estimated that the firm has $100,000 in two months. The United States postal authorities investigated and declared them a fraud. They were prosecuted at the St. Clair Hotel in the hands of Government, and Fleming was sent to the penitentiary at Joliet, Illinois. Merriman escaped through a technicality. His appearance at the St. Clair Hotel is the first time of him for some time.

A DECIDEDLY LIVELY RUMPU.

In Which Knives and Other Things Are Used.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 5.—At Portage Lake, near Ashland, John Fraser and a man named Fox, who had been drinking, were at the house of Edward Fox at a late hour. Fox refused the men to go home, whereupon they knocked him senseless. His daughter gave an alarm and Fox and Fraser, who live across the lake, came to the rescue. He grabbed a chair and fell Fraser to the floor. Fraser recovered and came at Fox. The two then drew pocket knives and commenced stabbing and slashing each other. A second alarm brought in a man named McDonald and two laborers. Fraser's nose was cut almost off, only hanging by a small piece of skin; also several small wounds. Fox had an arm badly cut. The men were parted. When it was supposed Fraser was in a wagon safe he bolted away from the captors and ran to the house as if enemy, and jumped through three windows and over a fence, maiming himself. At last they quitted Fraser and he went home.

LIVELY ROW IN A CHURCH

The Nucleus of Which Was a Solitary Bologna Sausage.

Excommunication Epithets Run as Free as Water, Men and Women Faint, Reporters are Nonplussed, Bells are Cried, and so on.

PATTERSON, N. J., Sept. 5.—A meeting of the members of the Willis Street Baptist Church was held last evening in the church to take action in regard to the charges made against the pastor, Rev. George (Gus) by Mrs. Bradbury, of slander, and hanging a Bologna sausage to the door of her residence. The meeting was a most disorderly one, the members being divided into two factions. Both sections became intensely excited and the noise they made in the church could be heard a block away. The members jumped around and on the seats and called each other liars and hypocrites. Great excitement prevailed and the police had to be sent for to prevent a fight. During the excitement a member fainting and fell to the floor, and another woman fainted and was carried out and laid on the grass in front of the church. Several reporters were sequestered in the church, and on being discovered, a howl went up from the angry crowd. The scribes were ignominiously ejected without ceremony. The reporters then climbed on the benches in the rear of the church, but were again discovered and the windows were closed to keep the racket from being heard without. In front of the church was a crowd of people, while the church doors were guarded by the police. Mrs. Bradbury's followers, being unable to cope with the friends of the pastor, left the church in disgust and proceeded to the residence of a member, where an indignation meeting was held. The meetings at both the church and the home were prolonged until a late hour. After the windows of the church were closed the heat became so intense that several women fainted.

A $200,000 FAILURE.

The Minnesota Elevator Company Goes Down—Others Affected.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 5.—The Union Elevator Company, of Red Wing, has made an assignment. The company owned between thirty and forty elevators on branches of the Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad. The liabilities are $200,000; assets $200,000. Among the stockholders are Governor Hubbard and State Senator J. G. Lawrence, also C. B. Hotchkiss and B. L. Hurd, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, and W. J. Watta, of Scranton, Pennsylvania.

WARREN, Minn., Sept. 5.—Wednesday it became known that the Minneapolis Elevator Company owned and running extensive flouring mills at Minneapolis. The company had large liabilities and that the Minnesota Elevator Company had made an assignment. It is asserted that Senator James G. Lawrence, who is President of the Elevator Company, is in serious financial difficulties. Yesterday morning a run commenced on the First National Bank of the city, and the bank was closed for business. Lawrence's liabilities are thought to be heavy but no estimate can now be given. Considerable of his paper is held here and at banks in Lake City, St. Paul and Milwaukee and some in Eastern cities, especially in Hartford, Connecticut, and Syracuse, New York. Other failures are likely to follow.

FRATRICIDE.

Solomon Spencer Arrested for Poisoning His Brother Two Years Ago. LOANSFORD, Ind., Sept. 5.—Solomon Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keever, of Monticello, White County, have been indicted by the Grand Jury for the murder of Alva Spencer, a wealthy farmer in White County, two years ago. At the time circumstances pointed to foul play. Solomon Spencer is a brother of the murdered man whose body, which was exhumed several days ago, gives unmistakable signs of the presence of arsenic in large quantities. It is thought that Keever and his wife were hired by the brother to do the murderous work. The suspected persons were arrested. The greatest excitement prevails in White County over the developments.

A PREACHER'S CRIME.

Confessing on His Deathbed to a Poul Murder. WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 5.—A special from Weston says: Six years ago a foul and mysterious murder was committed in Brooke County, near Navigaton. A stone mason named Schomaker was twice shot through the head and his throat cut. No clue to the murderer was ever obtained until a few days ago. A local preacher living near there was fatally injured by a falling tree. When told he must die yesterday, he sent for the prosecuting Attorney and a minister and confessed that he had killed the mason, a prominent merchant, committed the crime. The names are withheld by the authorities for the present, but a warrant is issued.

POOR FELLOWS!

Disappointed in Love, They Cut Up All Sorts of Antics. CINCINNATI, Sept. 5.—Carl Rabner, aged thirty years, a blacksmith, is insane from disappointment in love, thinks he saw a monkey in his mirror, that he inherited $1,000,000, and is constantly preparing for his wedding. August Kretschmer, thirty years, a cabinet-maker, is also disappointed in love, has become a raving maniac, strips his clothes from himself, yells, sings, and is with difficulty controlled. "Woman" is his constant theme. Both were sent to Langway asylum today by the Probate Court. Neither has a home or relatives here.

Fatal Accident.

FIREWORKS, Sept. 5.—At a late hour Wednesday evening a serious accident occurred in the Thirty-third Ward, causing death to a man and badly injuring another. Mr. Troutwein and son, Daniel, were raising a one story house. They had placed five acres and other corner, but neglected to provide a firm base for them to rest upon. One jack slipped and the drop broke one of the corners. Both men were working under the building. The sleeper fell across the young man's breast and caught his father's leg. The son's breast was crushed. He died until 10 o'clock when he died. The elder Troutwein and two ribs broken.
